

Saint Jerome School

Did you know?

Saint Jerome School is fully accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges (NEASC) and has received the highest ranking possible in children's safety and security.

Saint Jerome School offers state of the art technology; every classroom at Saint Jerome School is equipped with a Smartboard and we have a full computer lab where students have weekly technology classes.

Saint Jerome School has full and half-day preschool programs for children starting at 4 years old.

Saint Jerome School has 100% acceptance rate among 8th grade students at the private Catholic high schools to which they apply?

Saint Jerome School is the only Catholic school in the area to offer 9 years of foreign language in preparation for high school.

Saint Jerome School is the only Catholic school in the area to offer 2 years of Latin in preparation for high school. Studies show that Latin students outperform all other students on the verbal portion of the SAT.

7th and 8th grade students at Saint Jerome School score over 70% higher than the national average in Math, Reading, and Language on standardized tests.

Saint Jerome School students consistently outperform their peers by scoring 50% above the national average in Math, Reading, Science, and Language on standardized tests.